

"LITTLE GREY LADY"

COLUMBIA OFFERING

Miss Dean to Take Role of Anna Grey in Pollock's Play.

MINSTRELS HEAD
BILL AT COSMOS

Two Concerts Scheduled Tonight,
Include That on Belasco Roof.

Among Washington theaters only the Columbia, the Cosmos, and the various vaudeville and moving picture houses remain open, offering amusement for these hot nights.

Channing Pollock's "The Little Grey Lady" is the offering of the Columbia Players for the week beginning tomorrow night, and Miss Dean will be seen in the role of Anna Grey, which she took in the original production, several years ago.

At the Cosmos, the American Minstrels, heading a number of Washingtonians, head the bill for the week. Tonight's concert includes that on the Belasco roof and the regular Sunday concert at the Cosmos.

COLUMBIA—"The Little Grey Lady."
The Columbia Players believe they have a treat in store for their patrons tomorrow night when the curtain rises on Channing Pollock's delightful comedy, "The Little Grey Lady."

Dealing, as it does, with a phase of life with which every one of the 3,000 Government employees in this city are more or less familiar, it is not surprising that the play reached the zenith of its career in this city four years ago when it became necessary to extend the engagement and keep the company here a fortnight to accommodate the crowds that thronged to the Columbia Theater.

There is little wonder that to many here the story appealed as a dream, or even a reality, rather than the stage comedy. Channing Pollock, the author, is not only a Washington boy, but by reason of his newspaper associations here had ample opportunity to acquaint himself with the conditions of which he has written.

As in the original production, at the Garrick and Majestic Theaters, New York, in the season of 1906-1907, Julia Dean has been cast as Anna Grey. It is a part of irresistible sweetness and womanliness and one in which she has proven herself delightfully competent.

Emile Melville will take the role of the boarding-house keeper, with Phyllis Sherwood as her daughter, Florence Huntington is cast as Mrs. Graham, and Grace Sherwood as Miss Wadleigh. Paul McAllister, as the Secord Service man, Samuel Meade, Everett Butterfield as Farrington Charlie, who succumbs to temptation, Walter Smith as the band of the boarding-house keeper, Frank Shannon, as Richard Graham, Stanley James, as Mr. Union, Arthur Fitch, as Bob, and Joseph Hamilton, as the guard, complete the cast.

COSMOS THEATER—Vaudeville.

The American Minstrels, ten strong, will be the headliner at the Cosmos next week that is expected to prove a big drawing card.

It is the biggest act that has ever played any of the popular-priced playhouses, and is said to be a complete show in itself. The act contains many players well known in Washington, having, in fact, had its origin in this city. The Minstrels are not confined to the stage, but numbers among its members boys and girls of all sizes, from dainty Baby Brown to husky Johnny Red.

Dicks and Wade, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stockton, are also booked this week. Theirs is an old-time black-face act. The act dates back to "Fido the War," Lena Lecovier, who is a girl of "senior" and stories; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lewis, in a new comedy sketch; the Schaeffer Sisters, a pair of dainty juvenile entertainers; and character impersonators; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stockton, in their new comedy singing sketch, and Tommy West, the eccentric comedian, complete a very interesting bill.

The program is arranged so that the American Minstrels, Lena Lecovier, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lewis are on in the afternoon the first three days and Dicks and Wade, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stockton, are on in the evening. Tommy West are on in the evening. On Thursday the program is reversed.

BELASCO ROOF GARDEN—Concert

Tonight.
The great popularity of the Belasco Roof Garden, as attested by the recent large audiences, has induced the management to arrange for what promises to be an exceptionally enjoyable orchestral concert on the Roof Garden to-night, beginning at 8:30, at popular prices.

Those who have experienced the grateful chill of that aerial location can properly appreciate the comfort and relief of simply sitting and enjoying the tonic of cool breezes. However, coolness will be only one of the factors of tonight's pleasure, as a really first-class orchestra, under the direction of S. Minster, will give the following musical program:
Overture, "Morning, Noon, and Night."
Selection, "The Chocolate Soldier."
Hubbell Violin solo, "Meditation," "Thais," Fantasia, "Hungarian," Massenet a Nocturne, "Midsummer Night's Dream," "The Arcadian," Mendelssohn a Barcarolle, "Hoffman's Tales," Brahms Waltz, "Wine, Woman and Song," Strauss Intermission.
Grand Selection, "Faust," Gounod Serenade, flute and cello, "Titi Selection," "The Arcadian," Mendelssohn Suite, "Egyptian," "Luzini March," "The Prophet," Meyerbeer

COSMOS—Sunday Concert.
A special program is arranged for today's show, the bill being quite different from the weekly program. In the evening Tunison and Roebie will be heard in new songs, Cecil Leonard in stories and character delineations, and Francis Millard, the popular yodeler and singer, will appear in a concert that includes two big orchestra numbers and an operatic selection on the auto-phone, accompanied by the full orchestra.

PIG KILLED BY DYNAMITE.
PORTLAND, Ind., July 11.—Ignorance of the difference between dynamite and food proved fatal to a pig belonging to Joseph H. Sell, of Pennville. A dynamite cartridge accidentally became mixed in the feed and was discharged by the animal while chewing.

POWER BEHIND THE FOOTLIGHTS.

STAGE DIRECTOR EDWIN H. CURTIS.

ONE of the factors in the season's success of the Columbia Players is Edwin H. Curtis, stage director, under whose supervision each of the summer's offerings has been presented.

While Mr. Curtis' methods differ greatly from the popular idea of a strenuous, loud talking individual at odds with everyone and "bullying" each unfortunate on the stage, he has come to be recognized among the well-known directors of the country. Primarily a character actor of considerable reputation of late he has devoted most of his energies to his work as stage director.

Several times this season patrons of the Columbia, however, have seen his work, his latest appearance being as the soft-voiced father of St. Iohn Jane in the recent production of the same name.

NEXT WEEK'S BILL AT THE COLUMBIA

With "Puddin' Head Wilson" underlined for production by the Columbia Players a week from tomorrow night, the Columbia Theater looks forward to one of the biggest weeks of the stock season.

Coming originally from the pen of Mark Twain in the form of a novel that attained immense sales wherever the English language is spoken, it was put into dramatic form by Frank Mayo, who found in the title role one of the best character parts of recent years.

Indeed, the entire play abounds in wonderful parts, and with the aggregation of character actors that make up the Columbia Players, "Puddin' Head Wilson" is sure to prove a delight to the patrons of the theater.

ABDUCTION CHARGE ALLOWED TO DROP

PETERSBURG, Va., July 17.—Not prosecuted by Miss Bessie Ann Robertson or her father, Thomas H. Whealan, charged with abduction, is a free man today, having been discharged yesterday in Ettrick for lack of prosecution.

Do You Weigh Too Much?

The Real Remedy and the Recipe
There are some stout people whom the above question does not seem to trouble very much. They are, however, wrong to be so careless, for obesity is a complaint which brings many evils in its train. There are others who have sought long and earnestly for a really reliable remedy for obesity, and to these the following prescription will be of absorbing interest, because it presents in a simple and harmless form and sure relief a remedy which is rapidly gaining a world-wide reputation. The reader may make up the prescription for himself (or herself) on getting the ingredients from the druggist—or the latter will do so willingly.
This is the full recipe: 1/2 oz. Marmalade, 1/2 oz. Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic, and 3/4 oz. Peppermint Water. Take a dose of one teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.
This admirable and quite harmless remedy will soon take off pounds of the offending fatty excess; and as, day by day, the weight decreases, strength and vigor will return in equal ratio, for, be it observed, there is no fasting or exercise required. Rest, good food, regular doses—these are all that is necessary to reduce weight to normal, increase the supply of pure blood, clear the skin, beautify the complexion, and restore energy and excellent spirits.

BOYS' READING ROOM OPENED TO PUBLIC

Garden Memorial Church Project Extends Beyond Congregation.

WASHINGTON TIMES BUREAU, ANACOSTIA, D. C., JULY 17.

A reading room for boys has been opened in the Garden Memorial Presbyterian Church, on Minnesota avenue, as the result of a movement started by the Rev. George M. Cummings, pastor of the church, and some of the men of the congregation. The room is in the Sunday school department of the church and is open each Sunday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock. Reading tables and games have been installed. Although the reading room has been freely patronized by the boys of the church, it is the intention of those in charge to invite all other boys. The men in charge of the work are Clarence Snell, Alexander B. Garden, William A. Snell and Messrs. Parker and Biddle.

Policeman D. J. Garvey, of the Eleventh precinct, is away on annual leave. Policeman J. W. Kite has returned from leave, as has Mounted Sergeant Charles A. Stevens. William E. Hager, custodian of the building, is absent on leave. George Hess will fill the vacancy caused by the absence of Patrol Driver William O'Brien.

Dr. William A. White, superintendent of the Government Hospital for the Insane, has come to New York city to remain with friends for a number of days.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Anacostia Baptist Church has fixed upon August 1 and 2 as the dates for the lawn party of the society.

The Sunday school of the Anacostia Baptist Church has arranged to hold its annual outing at Glen Echo, July 22.

Capt. Robert Richards, U. S. A., who has been assigned to the Government Hospital for the Insane for approximately a year, in order to give his attention to the study of psychiatry, with a view of applying the knowledge thus gained in the medical service of the United States army, has been directed to proceed to a post in California. Another officer of the army will be detailed to act at the Government hospital in the place of Captain Richards.

The choir of the Anacostia Baptist Church will be singing at the Sunday evening exercises, as congregational singing will be the program at these twilight ceremonies on the lawn.

The Rev. Samuel W. Grafflin, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Anacostia, has arranged to deliver a series of twilight sermons to his congregation, beginning in August.

BREAKS BONES; STUNG.

MILROY, Ind., July 17.—In an effort to save a swarm of bees, John H. McCorkle, aged seventy, of Richland township, stepped out on a limb that broke under his weight, precipitating him to the ground, fifteen feet below. The aged man suffered a fracture of the collar bone and two ribs and was stung many times by the bees before relief came. He may recover.
